

Faculty biosketch

Name: Steven J Levin, MD

Title: Associate Professor of Family Medicine

Education: 1981 – A.B. – Brown University
1985 – M.D. – Emory University School of Medicine
1988 – Family Medicine Residency – Medical University of South Carolina
1989 – Faculty Development Fellowship –University of North Carolina

Board Certification:
1988 -- Family Medicine

E-mail: slevin@umdnj.edu

Publications and Presentations

Levin, S, “Keynote Address” at White Coat Ceremony, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, New Brunswick, NJ, August 13, 2004.

Levin, S, “Keynote Address” at Student Clinician Ceremony, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, New Brunswick, NJ, June 24, 2003

Levin, S, “Primary Care Issues of the HIV Patient” at the 6th Annual Trends and Controversies in Prescribing for the Primary Care Practitioner Conference, UMDNJ, New Brunswick, NJ, November 23, 2003

Levin, S, “What Every Family Physician Should Know About HIV” at the NJ Family Practice Association Meeting, Philadelphia, PA, June 1, 2001

Bihari, B., Levin, S., Malebranche, D., Valdez, H., "Identifying HIV Infection", Patient Care, 2000; 34, 55-77

Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, "Culture and Medicine: Caring for Undocumented Latino Families", 1991

Levin, S., Ornstein, S.M., "Management of Hypercholesterolemia in a Family Practice Setting". Journal of Family Practice, 1990; 31, 613-617

Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, "Community Oriented Primary Care", 1990

Honors, Awards:

1981 – Phi Beta Kappa

1981 – Sigma Xi

1985 – Alpha Omega Alpha

1998 – University Excellence Award, UMDNJ, for distinguished service and outreach to the external community

2000 – Humanism in Medicine Award, from the Healthcare Foundation of New Jersey

2005 – New Jersey Family Physician of the Year from the New Jersey Academy of Family Medicine

Comments:

Dr. Levin has been the medical director of St. John's Family Health Center since 1989. His primary focus is on the provision of primary care to patients without proper access to care. He has special interests in the treatment of HIV, healthcare disparities, community oriented primary care, and multiculturalism. He serves on several committees and boards that address the needs of the underserved.