

Name: David Ethan Swee, MD
Professor of Family Medicine and Acting Senior Associate Dean for Education

Undergraduate school: Grinnell College, BA, 1969

Graduate School: Dalhousie University Medical School, MD, 1975

Residency: Family Practice Residency- Somerset Medical Center, 1975-77

Fellowship: American Council on Education/F. Marian Bishop Fellowship: 2002 -03

Board certification:

American Board of Family Medicine, Diplomate, 1977

Recertification, 1983, 1989, 1995, 2001

Fellow, American Academy of Family Physicians, 1978

Email: swee@umdnj.edu

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS:

Cassidy RC, Swee DE, Stuart MR. Teaching biopsyo-ethical medicine in a family practice clerkship. J Med Educ 1983;58:778-83.

Swee DE, Stuart MR. Teaching the residency application process to third-year medical students. J Med Educ 1986;61:406-8.

Swee DE, Winter RO, Hammond BL. Testing a model of academic career development. Fam Med 1989;21:350-54.

Rogers JC, Swee DE, and Ullian J. Teaching medical decision making. Medical Teacher 1991;13(2):157-64.

Swee DE, Toro-Echague B, Formica P. Providing continuing education for physicians: Applying for and renewing institutional accreditation status. NJ Med 1992;89(3):219-22.

Like RC, Breckenridge MB, Swee DE, Lieberman III JA. Family health science and the new generalist practitioner. Family Systems Medicine 1993;11(2):149-61.

Tallia AF, Swee DE, Winter RO, Lichtig LK, Knabe FM, Kanuf RA. Family Practice graduate medical education and hospital patient care costs in New Jersey. Acad Med 1994;69(9):747-53.

Garner JG, Scherger JE, Beasley JW, Rodney WM, Swee DE, Garrett EA, Kahn NB. Responses to questions about the specialty of family practice as a career. Am Fam Phys 1999;60:167-74.

Frantz AC, Beebe SA, Horvath VS, Canales, J, Swee DE. The roles of teaching and learning centers. To improve the academy: resources for faculty, instructional and organizational development 2005;23:72-90.